Fraud continues to target pensioners

Dear Members,

Unfortunately, fraud and scams are now a part of our lives. We must remain diligent to protect ourselves from criminals who are being more creative in order to gain access to protected information.

We again alert you to scams, fraud and abuse targeted at pensioners. The most successful appear to involve callers identifying themselves as from federal government agencies like the U.S. Department of the Treasury, the Internal Revenue Service, or the Medicare/Social Security Administration. Posing as government employees doing you a service or trying to resolve an issue with your account or insurance, they will attempt to gather critical personally identifying information, including your Social Security number, bank account information and pension accounts.

You should never disclose this information if you have not initiated the phone call. These federal agencies will rarely call citizens to request this type of information. If you are contacted by anyone claiming to be from a federal or state agency, always indicate you will call the agency directly to verify their identity. Do not take the number they give you, rather look up the general contact for the agency yourself. Your privacy is a top priority for us. I ask you to do your part by being on the alert for this type of fraud.

Best regards, Mary Beth Foley, Esq. Executive Director.
